Language training (in FLE French as a Foreign Language)

Lessons to meet your needs and expectations

Small groups

We have an average class size of 5 to 8 students all through the year (10 from June to September) and this allows to focus on the individual tutorial. Our teachers give each student enough time to facilitate his/her personal progression. Interactive dynamics in small-sized groups help students improve their communication skills.

Classes from « A1 to C2 »

At Tours Langues, our courses are defined according to a 6 level scale of language proficiency, ranging from A1 to C2. To insure best placement in a group, evaluation test and needs analysis help us assess the students' language skills.

Interactive and task-based

Our courses are organized to involve our students in a task-based, interactive and communicative dynamic. Our students' implication is enhanced through all learning skills. They may get involved in different immersion, integration or creativity projects (meeting local inhabitants, visiting schools, creative writing, etc...).

FLE and vocational French (FLP)

Beside being a language school, well anchored in our professional field (teaching French as a foreign language and other languages), and beside being examination center for TCF with a long time experience in certifying tests, Tours Langues combines FLE sessions with vocational French. These courses articulate around different work experiences and practical training in highly qualified vocational schools and in companies that are accredited for their professionalism and their expertise in the fields of pastry, bakery, cooking and floral art.

FLE + FLP

Tours, French Excellence

Tours lies in a unique and ideal area. From its original name Caesarodunum (Cesar's hill), Tours blossoms in the heart of the Region Centre carved in and by French history. The Loire has been listed among the world heritage of the UNESCO, flows through the kings's valley and stands out in the midst of the multi-faceted French History : garden of Eden, parks, bucolic manor houses, town of gastronomy, royal châteaux and Renaissance dwellings, remarkable cathedrals, medieval fortresses are among the marvels you can discover.

Tours is capital city of the Touraine

This city of nearly 300 000 inhabitants is located in the region Centre Val de Loire and has been ranked 22nd town in France since March 2017. The rivers Loire and Cher flow across the town and nowadays the high speed train TGV takes you to Paris within an hour. An international airport makes trips to some French and European cities easier.

Tours is a university town

François Rabelais university hosts around 25000 students on several campuses. Tours is also an international town. A lot of students choose Tours because they find friendly atmosphere and well-being. All year round you can find the students sitting outside cafés on the Place Plumereau, the main square in the historical centre Vieux Tours, the liveliest area in town. If you wander at night through the winding streets of Vieux Tours, you can discover the many faces of life at the crossroads of languages and cultures. Located right in the heart of the ancient town, Tours Langues embodies this international mobility. It offers language stays in a region that stands out with its savoir-vivre and its spoken French that remains « neither too fast nor too slow and bears no accent ».
